KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Making of a five brand new millionaires out of five former doughboys through a vast lottery to be held by the Knights of Columbus is the proposition put up to the knights by ex-Private Robert Scurliff of the 26th Division as the most picturesque way of disposing of the Knights of Columbus was fund balance of $5,000,000 recently offered to the American Legion in the form of a memorial building.

In a letter to Supreme Treasurer Daniel J. Callahan of Washington, D. C., the young veteran expresses himself forcefully on the subject. "The war made many millionaires out of the profiteers," he declares, "why can't the peace make some millionaires out of the doughboys who did the fighting? I suggest that the Knights of Columbus hold a big national lottery by getting all the dog-tag numbers of all the soldiers who served at the front and share them out. Hereafter, the president's wife, draw five numbers and award a cool million dollars each to the men whose numbers are drawn. If the man should be deceased, give the million to his next of kin. By this plan at least some doughboys would come out of the war as well as some of the profiteers."

The plan is picturesque enough, the K. of C. treasurer comments, and is, as a matter of fact, more related to the purpose of the K. of C. fund than hundreds of other plans submitted to the knights. "But," Mr. Callahan adds, "the K. of C. can't possibly entertain it because they have to think of the men of the navy as well as the army and they must think in both terms of tens of thousands rather than in lucky five. Possibly he concluded, many more than five will become millionaires through the business training thousands of veterans are receiving free from the knights."

It will be called to order at 10 a. m. The customary presentation of the flag to the district school will be made on Wednesday morning and the memorial service will take place at 4 o'clock on the same afternoon.

One candidate was received by transfer from the W. W. Perkins Corps of New London. The corps will entertain the department officers at the next meeting on March 26th with dinner at noon. All the veterans are to be guests of the corps and all members of the corps will be present. The meeting closed in the usual form with the singing of America and the salute to the flag.
